Key Takeaways

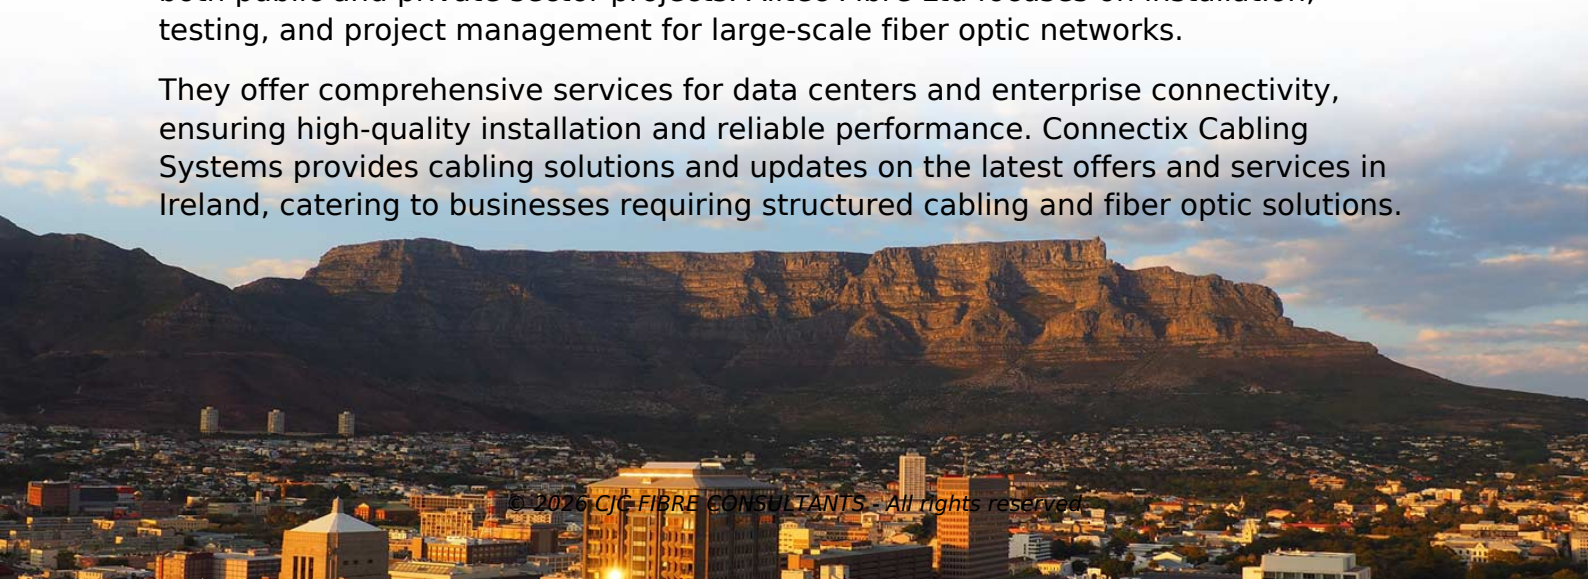

Ireland has several reputable suppliers and distributors of fiber optic cables, including Farnell Ireland, Wood Communications, Alltec Fibre, and Connectix Cabling Systems.

Key Suppliers and Distributors

Farnell Ireland offers a wide range of fiber optic cables suitable for telecommunications, data centers, and networking applications. Their products include single-mode and multimode cables with various connector types, designed for high-speed, long-distance data transmission. Farnell provides fast quotes, same-day dispatch, and technical support for customers across Ireland.

Wood Communications is an Irish-owned distributor specializing in networking products for data communications, telecoms, and security industries. They provide fiber optic cables along with professional advice, efficient delivery, and support for both public and private sector projects. Alltec Fibre Ltd focuses on installation, testing, and project management for large-scale fiber optic networks.

They offer comprehensive services for data centers and enterprise connectivity, ensuring high-quality installation and reliable performance. Connectix Cabling Systems provides cabling solutions and updates on the latest offers and services in Ireland, catering to businesses requiring structured cabling and fiber optic solutions.

Additional Options

Other notable companies include Elio Networks, which provides high-speed broadband and enterprise-grade connectivity solutions, and Crescent Communications and Lynch Networks, which specialize in structured cabling and data infrastructure installation.

Considerations for Buyers

When purchasing fiber optic cables in Ireland, consider: Product type: Single-mode vs. multimode depending on distance and bandwidth requirements. Installation services: Some suppliers offer full installation and testing. Delivery and support: Fast dispatch and technical assistance can be crucial for business continuity.

Regulatory compliance: Ensure products meet Irish and EU telecommunications standards. Sustainability: Some companies prioritize environmentally responsible practices in installation and materials. These suppliers provide both retail and enterprise solutions, making it easier for businesses and individuals to source fiber optic cables in Ireland efficiently.
